I had never been to a Podiatrist before so I wasn't sure exactly what to expect. Dr. Sullivan came in and put me immediately at ease. He was professional but with a bit of humor that I thought was nice. He was very good about making sure all of my concerns were addressed and he explained what he thought we should do and made sure that I understood and asked if I had further questions. I appreciate that he takes a common sense approach to treatment and doesn't just use medication to cure everything. The only problem I had was with trying to retrieve the test results his office sent by email but I was able to contact Microsoft Help and was able to get my problem resolved and was able to read the results.

This is my 'go to' place. I am on my feet quite a bit and love (if not also need) to exercise. When my wheels (feet) go bad- I am miserable. WFA- efficient, effective, always pleasant, and importantly a diagnosis, a plan, recommendations, and follow-up are gone over. Also excellent at re-enforcing recommendations. I had been told that my shoes were part of the problem because that were too flexible and offered no support. I had heard that a few time in the past. I was so taken by the recommendation to invest in my feet that I promptly went over to Stouts and got a great fitting and supportive pair of shoes. I was also fitted for an insert at the time of my WFA visit. Feeling better already. Thanks for helping!!

I have suffered with foot pain for years. I had gone to another Podiatrist about 5 years ago and he recommended bunion and hammertoe surgery to reduce the pain. It didn't. In fact it became worst. My feet and ankles now swell all the time. I went back a couple of times but finally quit going since he didn't seem to have any answers. I thought I would just have to live with the pain. On a recommendation from a friend of my daughter's, I made an appointment with Dr. Sullivan. I was impressed. He is very knowledgeable and a good listener. He was able to pinpoint the reason for the pain. He recommended some exercises and gave me a boot to wear at night. After just one night, I already can feel a difference. In another couple of weeks, he will do a minor procedure on my hammertoes which should relieve the pain in my toes. I'm thrilled. I finally have some hope and don't require additional surgery!

First trip ever to a podiatrist and it was great. I had multiple problems and get it all taken care of in good order. There was no wait to see Dr. Sullivan and he was friendly and easy to talk to. The staff were all very nice, too. He answered all my questions and put me at ease. I had part of a toenail removed, two callouses smoothed down and my plantar fasciitis taken care of. There is no doubt I will go here whenever there is a need to do so. Just perfect!!!

Before I went to Westfield Foot n Ankle I saw another podiatrist that didn't spend 2 minutes with me and didn't discuss options for my foot problem. So I decided to find another podiatrist in the Indy area and a second option! I wasn't referred to Doctor Sullivan but I did search the Internet and read all reviews on almost all podiatrists in the Indy and its northern suburbs. I also read all 240+ Demand force reviews on doc Sullivan and decided that it was worth a try from all the positive reviews. Well I am happy to say I wasn't disappointed. Doctor Sullivan looked at the x-rays and took the time to discuss options for my right big toe. We discuss toe joint fusion, toe joint replacement, and orthotics. First thing I need to point out is that felt good to have an appointment with a doctor and be called in at the time my appointment was scheduled not 30-60 minutes later like the last podiatrist I visited. Second it was great to see doc Sullivan not acting put out by all the questions I asked. He also helped with my planter factitious by recommending a boot I wear at night. I only wore the boot for 2-3 days so far and I can already feel the pain subside. To make a long review short, I would definitely recommend doc Sullivan to anyone reading this review and I already referred a coworker to him.

I was promptly received at the check-in desk and then to the exam room. Dr. Cunningham was very friendly and after he examined me for my foot problem he explained in detail his diagnosis and his plan for treatment. He provided me with some medication and a detailed description of the at home treatment he prescribed. I might add that his staff was very helpful. This was my third visit to Dr. Cunningham and with each visit I feel assured that I am seeing the right Podiatrist. Margaret Higgins
